RE: Directional Survey Requirement
AMPH RA SUA; Richard No. 001
Well SN 241560
Well Status 29 – Dry and Plugged
Grand Cheniere Field, Cameron Parish

Dear Mr. Jones:

In response to your February 21, 2011 letter concerning the referenced matter, please be advised that the directional survey requirement of LAC 43:XIX.135 is hereby waived. The formation of unit AMPH RA SUA (Office of Conservation Order No. 199-DD) prior to drilling obviates the need for a directional survey and the Report of Apparent Deviation shall satisfy the requirements of LAC 43:XIX.135. It is further noted that this well was determined to be dry and subsequently plugged and abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, contact Kjel C. Brothen at 225/342-6089.

Yours truly,

JAMES H. WELSH

Re: 10 Day Letter-Richard No. 1
Field: Grand Cheniere (4172)
Parish: Cameron (12)
SERIAL NO: 241560

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to the subject 10 Day Letter dated February 16, 2011 which informed Dynamic Exploration Partners, L.L.C. that a directional survey needed to be filed for the subject well. Please be advised that the reason that a directional survey was not filed is because it was not run. A unit was formed for the well prior to drilling (199-DD) and Form MD-10-R-A filed accordingly. However, the amended permit to drill was not received until October 11, 2010. The well was plugged and abandoned July 26, 2010.

Because of some confusion regarding the above, the Report of Apparent Deviation was not filed when the Form WH-1 was submitted. Accordingly, attached hereto, in triplicate, is Form AD for the Dynamic Exploration Partners, L.L.C. AMPH RA SUA; RICHARD NO. 1 (formally Richard No.1). Please note that the form shows the well name as Richard No. 1 to match the previous filings.

Dynamic feels that the fact that the unit was formed prior to drilling the well eliminated the requirement for a directional survey and requests that the Form AD be utilized in its place.

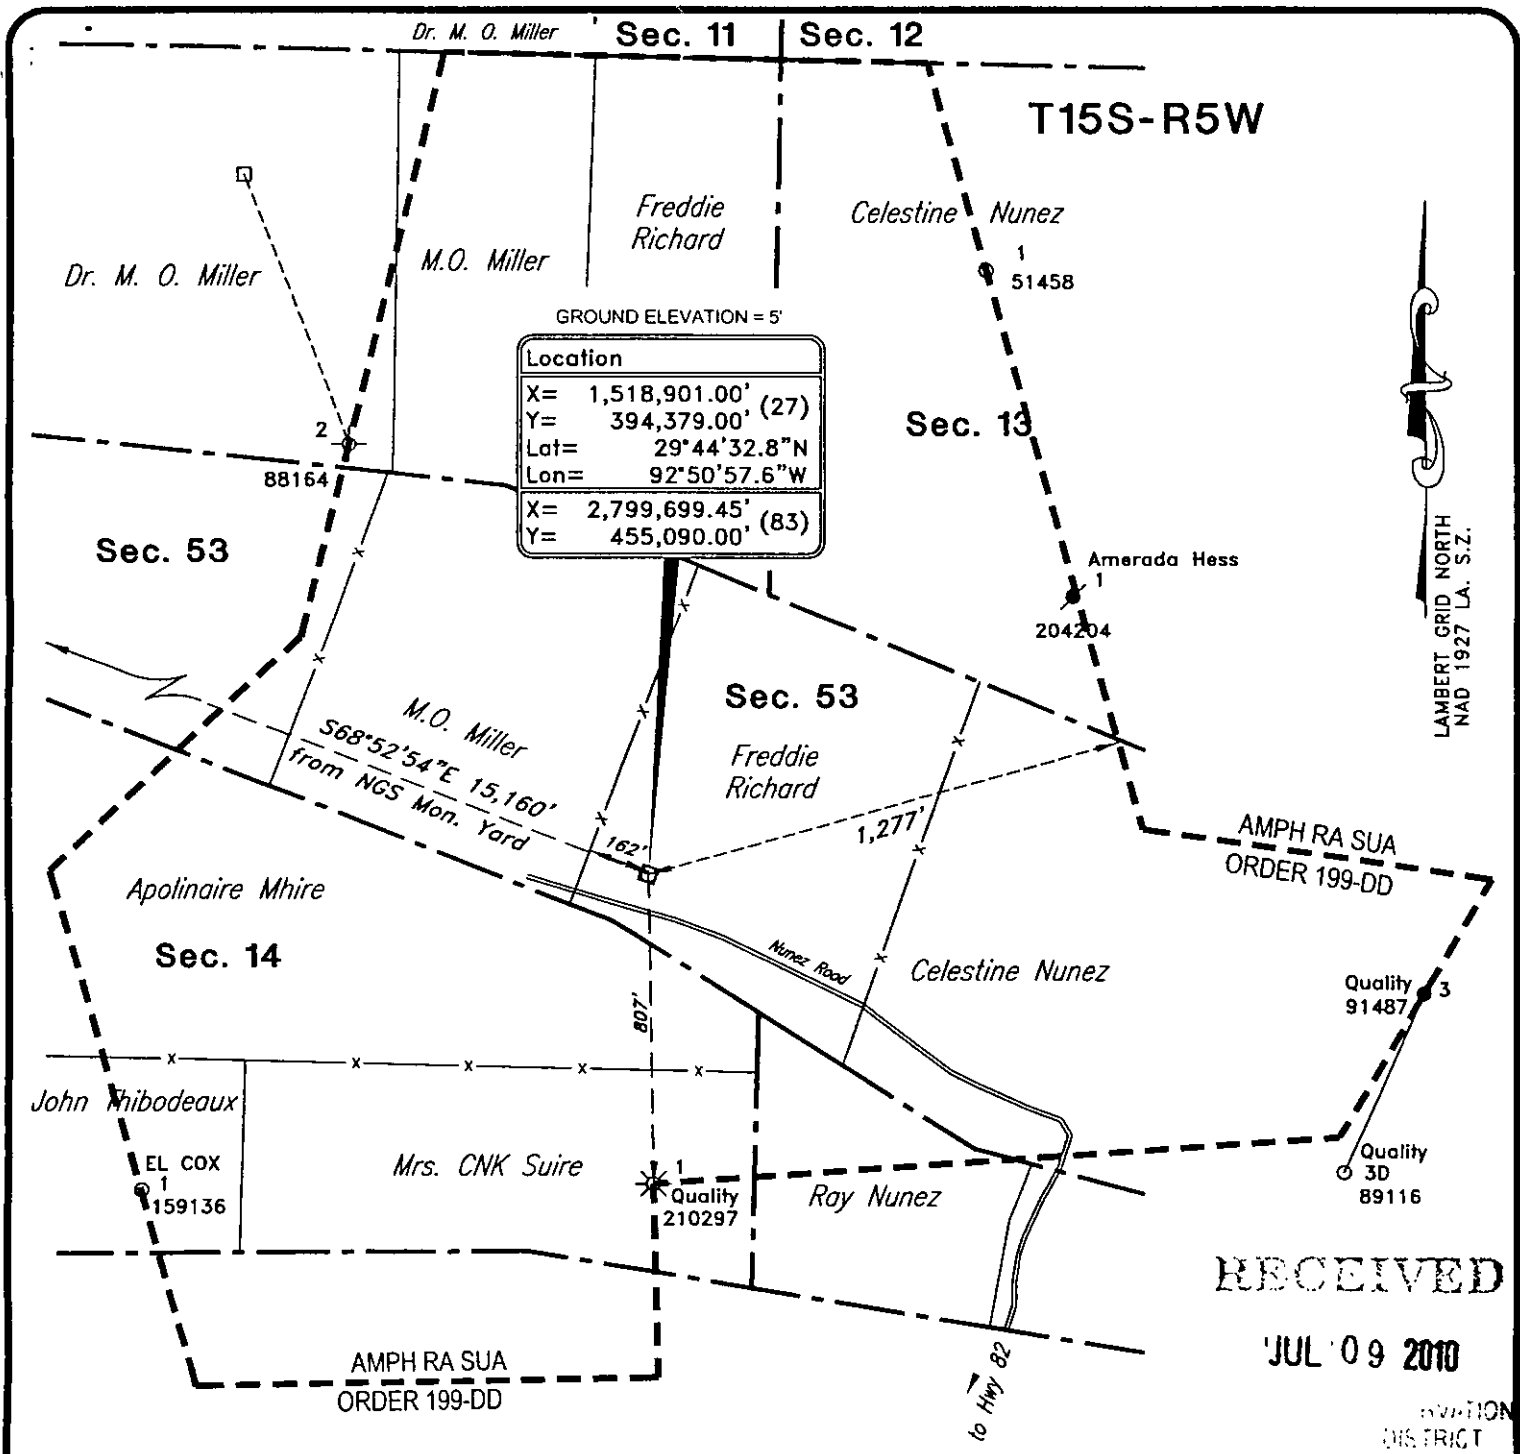

We are sorry for the confusion in this matter. If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned at 337-232-6841.

Yours Truly,
